

Asia Pacific Equity Income Portfolio

Portfolio Objective and Strategy

The investment objective of the Portfolio is income generation and long-term growth of capital. The Portfolio seeks to achieve its investment objective by investing in a portfolio of equity securities of companies in the Asia-Pacific ex-Japan region. The Investment Manager believes that, over time, securities that have high dividend yield and are undervalued by the market relative to their long-term earnings power can provide high return and low volatility. Accordingly, the Investment Manager will utilize its proprietary risk/return quantitative model and fundamental analyst expertise to build a portfolio that seeks to combine high dividend yield and high return with low volatility.

‡ The MSCI AC (All Country) Asia-Pacific ex-Japan Index captures large- and mid-cap representation across 4 of 5 developed-market countries (excluding Japan) and 8 emerging-market countries in the Asia-Pacific region. Developed-market countries include: Australia, Hong Kong, New Zealand and Singapore. Emerging-market countries include: China, India, Indonesia, Korea, Malaysia, the Philippines, Taiwan and Thailand. With 683 constituents, the index covers approximately 85% of the free float-adjusted market capitalization in each country. An investor cannot invest directly in an index, and their results are not indicative of the performance for any specific investment, including an AB fund. Indices do not include sales charges or operating expenses associated with an investment in a mutual fund, which would reduce total returns.

<sup>2</sup> Currency-hedged share classes use hedging techniques in an attempt to reduce—but not eliminate—fluctuations between the investor's holdings in a particular currency-hedged share class denominated in the investor's investing currency and the portfolio's base currency. The goal is to deliver returns that track the portfolio's base currency returns more closely. Stand-alone currency symbols represent convenience pricing, which offers the ability to purchase or redeem shares using the currency indicated, which is then converted into the base currency of the portfolio using a market rate at the time of purchase or redemption. Convenience pricing involves no currency hedging and does not seek to provide any protection from currency fluctuations.

Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Total returns, provided by AB, include the change in Net Asset Value and reinvestment of any distributions paid on Portfolio shares for the period shown, but do not reflect sales charges. Fund returns are annualized for periods longer than one year. Performance quoted in currencies other than the base currency of the Portfolio is calculated by converting the daily Net Asset Value of the Portfolio using a spot foreign exchange rate of the other offered currency on each valuation point. The information on this page is for informational purposes only and should not be construed as an offer to sell, or solicitation of an offer to buy, or a recommendation for the securities of the Portfolio. Returns denominated in a currency other than that of the fund may increase or decrease as a result of foreign exchange currency fluctuations.

Investment in the Fund entails certain risks. Investment returns and principal value of the Fund will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The Fund is meant as a vehicle for diversification and does not represent a complete investment program. Some of the principal risks of investing in the Fund include country risk, emerging markets risk, currency risk, currency hedged share class risk, illiquid assets risk, portfolio turnover risk, management risk, lack of operating history risk, smaller capitalization companies risk, industry/sector risk, derivatives risk, borrowing risk, taxation risk and equity securities risk. These and other risks are described in the Fund's prospectus. Prospective investors should read the prospectus carefully and discuss risk and the fund's fees and charges with their financial adviser to determine if the investment is appropriate for them.
