

European Flexible Equity Portfolio

Portfolio Objective and Strategy

The Portfolio's investment objective is long-term growth of capital. The Portfolio seeks to generate positive returns by employing an absolute return strategy without regard to indices and benchmarks. The Investment Manager pursues this approach emphasizing each of the following three components: (1) sector and security selection, (2) positive net long exposures to European and/or other equities, and (3) a "beta" hedging strategy to flexibly adjust the Portfolio's net long exposures to individual European markets, countries and sectors. In pursuing this strategy the Investment Manager employs a combination of "top-down" and "bottom-up" investment processes with the goal of identifying the most attractive European and other markets, countries, sectors and issuers, by drawing on the fundamental and quantitative research capabilities of the Investment Manager, and its economists' macro-economic insights.

² Currency-hedged share classes use hedging techniques in an attempt to reduce — but not eliminate — fluctuations between the investor's holdings in a particular currency-hedged share class denominated in the investor's investing currency and the portfolio's base currency. The goal is to deliver returns that track the portfolio's base currency returns more closely. Stand-alone currency symbols represent convenience pricing, which offers the ability to purchase or redeem shares using the currency indicated, which is then converted into the base currency of the portfolio using a market rate at the time of purchase or redemption. Convenience pricing involves no currency hedging and does not seek to provide any protection from currency fluctuations.

Past performance is no guarantee of future results. Total returns, provided by AB, include the change in Net Asset Value and reinvestment of any distributions paid on Portfolio shares for the period shown, but do not reflect sales charges. Fund returns are annualized for periods longer than one year. Performance quoted in currencies other than the base currency of the Portfolio is calculated by converting the daily Net Asset Value of the Portfolio using a spot foreign exchange rate of the other offered currency on each valuation point. The information on this page is for informational purposes only and should not be construed as an offer to sell, or solicitation of an offer to buy, or a recommendation for the securities of the Portfolio. Returns denominated in a currency other than that of the fund may increase or decrease as a result of foreign exchange currency fluctuations.

Investment in the Fund entails certain risks. Investment returns and principal value of the Fund will fluctuate so that an investor's shares, when redeemed, may be worth more or less than their original cost. The Fund is meant as a vehicle for diversification and does not represent a complete investment program. Some of the principal risks of investing in the Fund include country risk, emerging markets risk, currency risk, currency hedged share class risk, illiquid assets risk, focused portfolio risk, portfolio turnover risk, management risk, lack of operating history risk, smaller capitalization companies risk, industry/sector risk, derivatives risk, taxation risk and equity securities risk. These and other risks are described in the Fund's prospectus. Prospective investors should read the prospectus carefully and discuss risk and the fund's fees and charges with their financial adviser to determine if the investment is appropriate for them.
